

Scene from "The Soldiers of Fortune," a six reel Photoplay at the Lyric Theatre Tomorrow Night

Cecelia Loftus

Tonight for the last time at the Lyric theatre will be presented in a beautiful five reel production, Cecelia Loftus, the famous character actress in the famous novel and play A Lady of Quality, by Frances Hodgson Burnett. The subject is an idyllic blending of the romance, beauty and daring of the days of knight hood, and the film version has developed into a brilliant reproduction of the warmth and color of a picturesque period.

Cecelia Loftus, who, during her stage career has enacted many difficult characterizations, infuses into the role of Clorinda, the headstrong tempestuous hoyden who is the heroine of the tale, a degree of charm and sentiment that is at once rare and delightful. Throughout her strange and fascinating career, Miss Loftus, invests Clorinda with a dash and vivacity, a naturalness and artistry, difficult to imagine and impossible to resist.

The story centers about a young hoyden who grows up among her father's dissolute companions, clad in male attire, and who arrives at maturity with all the attributes of a man. She falls in love with Sir John Oxon, a dandy of London town under whose derision she abandons her masculine manners and dress, and becomes A Lady of Quality. Sir John toys with her heart, and subsequently spurns her love, leaving her soul filled with a great and tragic desolation. All the sorrow of her later history, the grief laden years, her noble resolve to remain faithful to the old Earl of Dunstanwoldo, whom in pique she has married in spite of a sudden overwhelming love for the manly Duke of Osmonie, are illustrated in thrilling and appealing episodes.

The production is mounted with settings lavish even for the Famous Players. The various characterizations are faithfully rendered and the tensely woven story never loses its enchanting continuity. Released on January 1. A Lady of Quality, may be accepted as a criterion of the productions to be submitted to the public during 1914 by the Famous Players film company.

KING OF GOLDFIELD CHARGED WITH FRAUD

Lawrence M. Sullivan is Under Arrest At Los Angeles On a Complaint Of a Woman

Los Angeles, March 10.—Lawrence M. Sullivan, the King of Goldfield in the boom days of the Nevada mining camp and reputed then a multi-millionaire, surrendered himself to a township constable here today on a warrant charging that he had defrauded Mrs. Laura Rogers of $500. Mrs. Rogers alleged that after obtaining all her money, supposedly for investment, Sullivan induced her to part with her jewelry also. Sullivan was held in bail of $2000.

Seven years ago Sullivan was virtual ruler of Goldfield and at the head of a score of mining companies in addition to banking and other operations. The collapse of the boom swept away his fortune.

ARGENTINE DANCE IS RESPONSIBLE FOR COLORS

Unless all signs fail, the coming spring is to be a cheerful season, if feminine garb can make it so for the newest colors are exceptionally vivid not to say glaring. The Argentine dance is responsible for a deep shade of yellow, enriched and deepened with tones of red, called the Tango; and there is a queer tone of pink somewhat resembling Nell rose, which shades into orange and blends beautifully with black or bronze, and is christened the Argentina. All of the new blues are exceedingly intense, the greens are vivid as tropical foliage and the erstwhile modest mauves and heliotropes have a yellow red undertone which give them a peculiar brilliance.

CONSUL IS CHARGED WITH ORGANIZING FILIBUSTER PARTIES

El Paso, Texas, March 10.—A warrant charging M. E. Diebold inspector of Mexican consulates, Senor de la Sierra, Mexican consul here and two others with organizing filibustering expeditions on American soil was sworn out here today by agents of the department of justice.

At the consulate when the officers arrived with the warrant they found the defendants in conference with attorneys and a long delay ensued. The lawyers contended that it would be illegal to make the arrests in the consulate and finally it was agreed that the defendants should go voluntarily before the United States commissioner and surrender themselves.

The warrant was sworn out by E. M. Blanford, special agent of the department of justice before George B. Oliver, United States commissioner. It is charged that the defendants conspired to violate the neutrality laws of the United States and that a number of Mexicans who had been recruited and had agreed to join the federal general Caraveo at Piedras Negras were given tickets last Saturday from El Paso to Eagle Pass across the Rio Grande from Piedras Nieras.

HEIR TO THE THRONE OF BRUNSWICK IS EXPECTED

Berlin, March 10.—Horace Rumhold, counsellor of the British embassy here, was ordered today to Brunswick, where the arrival of an heir to the throne is expected shortly. The young Duke of Brunswick with the duchess who was formerly Princess Victoria Louise of Prussia and is the only daughter of Emperor William took up his official residence in Brunswick several months ago. The presence of a British official is in accordance with the ancient custom which renders necessary the certification of the birth of a member of the British royal family. The duke is a British prince.

The German empress has already arrived in Brunswick.

GEN. KELLY REPULSED

Formal Tender Of Transportation To San Francisco Are Made To the Unemployed. Papers For Arrests

Sacramento, Cal., March 9.—Twenty vagrancy warrants for General Kelly and nineteen John Does—his lieutenants—were drawn up by District Attorney E. S. Wachhorst today, and sworn to by Sheriff David Ahern. The officials will formally tender transportation to San Francisco to Kelly and his army and if they refuse they will be arrested as vagrants and placed in jail. The warrants will be served by the sheriff and a posse.

Three hundred deputies have been sworn in by the sheriff and armed with pick handles. Later they fought with double that number of Industrial Workers of the World, armed with clubs in an attempt today to drive General Kelly's army of unemployed off the Southern Pacific right of way. A score of men received injuries before the campers were routed.

On To Capital
When driven from the field, the Industrial Workers took up the cry On to the capitol, and started for the state house. City and county officials appealed to Governor Johnson to call out all available state troops to handle the riot.

The clash at the Southern Pacific grounds followed the arrest of General Kelley and eighteen of his subordinate officers, who were jailed on vagrancy charges. City and county officials then demanded that the rank and file of the army move on. The Kelly wing of the army obeyed but the opposition faction, composed of the Industrial Workers, defied the sheriff's posse.

Many Heads Crushed
After the first clash the rioters returned to their camp and much blood was shed in a second attempt to drive them out. Deputy sheriffs beat into submission all of those who resisted. Many heads were fractured and groaned men lay in the street. Others of the army picked up stones, brickbats or anything they could lay hands on and began smashing street cars and store windows. They finally were driven off by the use of fire hose and it was announced they would drive them across the Sacramento river into Yolo county.
